MONO COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Date: June 25, 2009

Intoxicated Male Arrested At Travertine Hot Springs

On June 21, 2009 at approximately 4:56PM a Mono County Deputy responded to the Travertine Hot Springs near Bridgeport, for a report of an unclothed intoxicated male reportedly being belligerent to other visitors of the hot springs. Upon arrival the Deputy located the male, identified as Mr. Ronald Sturgeon age 68 and a resident of Yerington NV.

While speaking with Mr. Sturgeon the Deputy could smell a strong odor of alcohol emitting from Mr. Sturgeon. Mr. Sturgeon displayed various symptoms of alcohol consumption; he could not maintain his balance when walking, coupled with the fact that he admitted drinking heavily since 12:00PM.

Due to Mr. Sturgeon's high level of intoxication, the Deputy believed that he was unable to care for himself and arrested him for Public Intoxication. He was transported and booked at the Bridgeport Sheriff Station without incident.
