

CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL

DR 22-004 is issued with the following conditions:

1. Environmental Health Department shall review and approve sanitation methods for the RV use, in this case confirming proper service provided by the onsite well and proper and regular use of the dump station at Tom's Place. All utilities shall be connected prior to occupancy.
2. The applicant shall obtain a building permit for the primary building, and any necessary permits for the RV use, such as a temporary building permit for electrical hookup, prior to RV placement.
3. The use of the RV as a residence, limited to one year per Chapter 04.040, shall be discontinued after construction of the residence. If there is a demonstrated need, the Director Review may be renewed for one year following application submittal and notice to contiguous property owners.
4. The RV shall be placed in a manner that minimizes visual impact to nearby properties. The property shall be maintained in a neat and orderly fashion during construction of the residence.
5. If the trailer is to remain on the site following construction of the residence, it must be disconnected from utilities, be in operable condition, and remain vacant when parked on the property.
6. The RV shall be placed in a manner and the property maintained in a fashion that minimizes noise and residential activity impacts to neighboring residences. Residential uses shall be contained in the RV, outside camping activities such as a campfire are prohibited, and use of night lighting on and outside the trailer shall be minimized, in accordance with Mono County Dark Sky regulations (Chapter 23 of the Mono County General Plan).
7. All applicable conditions of approval contained in Use Permit 20-006 shall apply.
8. Any future accessory dwelling unit on the property shall obtain necessary planning permits prior to construction of the second unit.
9. Appeal. The Director Review permit shall become effective 10 days following the issuance of the Director's decision. During the 10-day period, an appeal may be filed in accordance with Chapter 47. If an appeal is filed, the permit will not be issued until the appeal is considered and a decision is rendered by the Planning Commission. (Section.31.060)
10. Termination. A Director Review shall terminate and all rights granted therein shall lapse, and the property affected thereby shall be subject to all the provisions and regulations applicable to the land use designation in which such property is classified at the time of such abandonment, when any of the following occur:
 - A. There is a failure to commence the exercise of such rights, as determined by the Director, within two years from the date of approval thereof. Exercise of rights shall mean substantial construction or physical alteration of property in reliance with the terms of the Director Review.

- B. There is discontinuance for a continuous period of one year, as determined by the Director, of the exercise of the rights granted.
 - C. No extension is granted as provided in Section 31.080.
11. Extension: If there is a failure to exercise the rights of the Director Review within one year of the date of approval, the applicant may apply for an extension for an additional one year. Any request for extension shall be filed at least 60 days prior to the date of expiration and shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee. Upon receipt of the request for extension, the Planning Division shall review the application to determine the extent of review necessary. Conditions of Approval for the Director Review may be modified or expanded, including revision of the proposal, if deemed necessary. The Planning Division may also deny the request for extension. Exception to this provision is permitted for those Director Reviews approved concurrently with a tentative parcel or tract map; in those cases the approval period(s) shall be the same as for the tentative map.
 12. Revocation: The Planning Commission may revoke the rights granted by a Director Review, and the property affected thereby shall be subject to all of the provisions and regulations of the Land Use Designations and Land Development Regulations applicable as of the effective date of revocation. Such revocation shall include the failure to comply with any condition contained in the Director Review or the violation by the owner or tenant of any provision pertaining to the premises for which such Director Review was granted. Before revocation of any permit, the commission shall hold a hearing thereon after giving written notice thereof to the permitted at least 10 days in advance of such hearing. The decision of the commission may be appealed to the Board of Supervisors in accordance with Chapter 47, Appeals, and shall be accompanied by an appropriate filing fee.
